

Tuition payment information

According to Danish Law, students from Non-Eu countries (or countries from the EEA zone (EU affiliated countries)) are required to pay tuition. The entrance tuition for a student will be maintained throughout the duration of the Program until graduation. A student will therefore not experience rising tuition costs over the duration of the Program.

Students required to pay tuition should follow the below guidelines for their tuition payments.

1. The Aarhus School of Architecture is required by SIRI to monitor the student academic progress and report any deviations from the normal Program cycle to SIRI.
2. Applicants admitted to the Aarhus School of Architecture must have paid the tuition for their first semester at the school, before start up the visa procedure. Since the current processing time of a visa to Denmark is 60 days, the tuition must have reached our account at least two months prior to the Program start.
3. During the course of the Program, students required to pay tuition must make sure that the tuition has been paid before the semester start. Failure to do this, may result in the Program participation being terminated. The payment schedule is as follows:

Payment deadline for the Fall semester: August 1st

Payment deadline for the Spring semester: January 1st

4. Tuition invoices will be mailed via the school mail account except the first semesters' tuition which will be mailed to the mail address provided in the application for admission.
5. Tuition is preferred transferred via bank transfers to the Aarhus School of Architecture Bank – details will be provided in the communication.
6. Students registered for an on-leave semester does not pay tuition for the on-leave semester.

Refund policy

7. Admitted students who has not started their semester #1, will receive full tuition refund.
8. Failed semesters does not qualify for a refund.
9. A semester terminated due to sickness does not qualify for a refund, the following semester will however be tuition-free. The termination of a semester constitutes a situation where the student cannot fulfill the presence requirement due to documented sickness, and therefore is barred from examination.
10. Tuition refund in case of termination of the Program will be calculated as follows: month of termination message is received plus one month is subtracted from the semester tuition.

Regulations as of September 2nd, 2021